

Pediatric Airway Drowning / Near Drowning

Designation of Condition: Arrest or survival after suffocation by submersion or immersion.

SUBMERSION: When a patient goes under the water immediately, has a hypoxic cardiac arrest, and then cools down.

IMMERSION: Patients are in the water with head above water and they continue to breathe while they cool down, before they eventually arrest.

